

Join us and shape the future of hospitality today!

EHL's dynamic campuses form a unique network where passionate students, academics, and industry experts from over 120 countries come together with a common goal: to develop and disseminate hospitality knowledge, while supporting the sector's continued growth.

We are constantly striving to improve the working environment and personal development opportunities for our more than 500 staff and teachers, who are among the most recognized experts in their respective fields. Since its foundation in 1893, EHL has been widely recognized by the industry and consistently ranked among the world's top hospitality management schools. Everything we do is based on our values of excellence, family, respect, learning and innovation, and we are committed to bringing them to life in tangible ways for our employees.

Teaching Assistants are crucial to support EHL courses, tutoring sessions and exam management. They also play an important role in being the first point of contact with our passionate students, facilitating their learning. Moreover, Teaching Assistants have an essential role in developing and representing the EHL Group, participating in several innovative projects and events, as well as fostering the connection between campuses, students, and alumni.

To join our amazing team, we are looking for several:

Teaching Assistants

In these areas of teaching:

- Hospitality finance and asset management: English / tutoring session
- Legal Entrepreneurship: French and English
- Human Behavior: French and English
- Hospitality operations management: French and English / tutoring session
- Sustainable People Management and Leadership: French and English / tutoring session
- F&B Hospitality Operations: French and English / tutoring session
- Management Tools: French and English / tutoring session
- Economics: French and English / tutoring session

What will you do?

- You will be the first point of contact with our students.
- You will deliver and manage tutoring sessions.
- You will participate to the ongoing digitalization of courses to improve our student's journey and experience.
- You will support Faculty members on the logistics of course preparation, grading and follow-up of practical exercises in class.
- You will ensure deadlines are met for exams and material submitted by students by updating the LMS pages.
- You will prepare and update course materials such as quizzes or videos to ensure the class runs smoothly.

Who you are?

- You have a bachelor's degree or an equivalent in one of the fields mentioned above
- You are service oriented and passionate about improving and facilitating our students' learning.
- You can work autonomously, and you feel at ease with presenting and public speaking.
- You have very good knowledge of MS Office tools (especially Excel) and you pay attention to details.
- You are open minded and proactive.
- You have very good communication skills, with fluency in French and in English.

What we offer?

We offer full time positions for 1 to 2 years as part of a united and talented team with the possibility to develop professional soft and hard skills in the scope of your mission, within of an educational institution with an exceptional benefits program including among others, complimentary meals, participation to transportation and a generous paid time off.

Will you join us?

Applications have to be submitted on this website. Please mention the topic area in your cover letter.

Please note that submitted documents will be used to evaluate your application and processed by authorized EHL Group employees.

For information on the processing of personal data, please consult our privacy policy.